

- 2 -

$38,000 - did not include costs calculated on a per M basis. - $44,000 is the accurate
figure.
$38M did not include the $6M Administration.

PHILIP MORRIS REVISIONS

Listed below are the changes for the PHILIP MORRIS ALPINE RESORT SWEEPSTAKES agreement:

P.4 -

OK ✓ E. Entering into a computer database the 6 digit code imprinted on each coupon entry and supply Philip Morris with the name, address and other relevant information requested by Philip Morris in a form usable to Philip Morris.

P.5 -

OK but higher price ✓ 3. Compensation vs. $38,000. As full compensation for the satisfactory completion of services to be rendered hereunder, PM shall pay DJA the sum of approximately Forty-Four Thousand Dollars ($44,000) upon the presentation of invoices to PM. Of this amount, Twenty-two Thousand Dollars ($22,000) shall be payable upon execution of this Agreement. PM shall pay DJA the remaining balance in accordance with the schedule of expenses set forth below:

- ✓ 1. Implementation, Administration and Judging, $6,000
- ✓ 3. Preparing a winners list and responding to requests for same, $175/thousand requests.

P.6 -

OK ✓ 7. Entry on database of 6-digit code on entry coupon, 95/M; deduplicating, 10/M; programming, $500.

P.8 -

OK ✓ b. In the event of termination with or without cause by PM, PM shall pay DJA its reasonable expenses then incurred plus any amounts which have been contracted for pursuant to this agreement. ^{but, only because this print is now moot.}

P.9 -

9. Delete the last clause -- "and, as to professional errors or omissions coverage, for (1) year thereafter."

P.9 -

OK ✓ 10. Delete "within 60 days of service of process."

pm1.sgr:2

2045977168 insurance issue OK

Call Jimmy Chen
Re: Risk Management